

Richmond Dispatch.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1877.

PETERSBURG.

ADDRESS BY DR. PETERBURG—REVIVAL AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE—PRESENTS TO THE CHURCH FAIR—A MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE—SAD AFFLICTION—PROTRACTED HUNTING TOUR.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 20, 1877.

Mr. Carter R. Bishop, Jr., has been appointed as the Commercial National Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father. He has also been elected a director of the bank.

Dr. William H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, visited Dinwiddie Courthouse yesterday (Tuesday) and addressed the citizens on the subject of education and the system of public schools. The Judge adjourned his court in order to allow Dr. Ruffner an opportunity to speak.

A revival of religion has been in progress for some time at the Harrison-Street Baptist (colored) church, and up to this date has resulted in the conversion of some twenty or thirty souls. Great interest is manifested on the subject among the colored people.

The Catholic fair is in full progress. A great many handsome and valuable articles have been presented for sale and raffle. One citizen has given a fine piano, another a set of furniture, another a splendid set of silver-service, another a magnificent forty-pound fruit-cake, and so on, and so on. Rev. Father Wislizenus, of Baltimore, has been invited to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The First Baptist church congregation are about to erect a chapel in the western part of the city as a missionary enterprise. They have already raised about $800 of the amount necessary to build it, and have secured the services of Rev. Dr. Filippo, late of Baltimore, to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The family of Mr. Virginia Archer, of Chesterfield county, have recently been peculiarly afflicted. The father, Mr. Archer, has lost three children. The first to die was a young boy just arrived at womanhood; the second a child; the third, who died, after a very brief illness, last night, was a son nearly sixteen years of age.

A party of citizens have fitted up a small school and supplied themselves with all necessary equipments, conveniences, and accommodations for the purpose of engaging in a protracted hunt down the James river. They will leave in a day or two, and will be gone for a considerable portion of the season. RICHMOND.

DANVILLE.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 19, 1877.

Old-fashioned sticklers took place Saturday evening at the Richmond hotel between Mr. W. T. Manning, of the News, and Captain R. G. Trezevant, of the Richmond and Danville railroad. Mr. Manning, feeling that he had cause for complaint against Captain Trezevant in consequence of some transaction between them, published a paragraph in the News of October 31st, which was evidently intended to be offensive to Captain Trezevant, and was so construed by him. After some correspondence between the parties, and several efforts to have a meeting, the difficulty by a regular fist-and-stick battle. Both parties were in good coolness and good luck, and were anxious to observe all the regulations for such engagements that no disposition to use weapons was manifested, and at one moment Mr. Manning had raised his foot to strike Trezevant, who, without saying so doing and begged pardon for showing a disposition to do so. "That's all right," said Trezevant, "go ahead." After Trezevant had been damaged rather more of the two parties separated, and Captain Trezevant got into a bad way. In a church corner, and duck the gentleman seemed well matched; and seeing this, and observing no disposition to resort to weapons of any kind, the passengers and bystanders by general consent permitted the matter to be brought to a satisfactory conclusion. On Sunday morning, even early remarked during the process.

"Punch, brother, punch—punch with care; Punch in the presence of the passagere."

Mr. Manning is disposed to take the matter as a pleasant occurrence, and consequently his friends, and amongst them your correspondent, are similarly disposed.

Mr. Raines, who has just returned, the oldest newspaper man in Danville, died Friday night last. The funeral services were conducted yesterday evening by Rev. Dr. Mrs. J. G. Shackelford has been extremely ill for several days.

Mr. J. G. Shackelford, son of Mr. P. W. Ferrell, and grandson of Mr. T. D. Neal, of Richmond, has been seriously ill for about a fortnight. Tommie had what was considered at first quite a slight bruise on the leg from a fall. But inflammation ensued, and the bone of the leg became diseased.

The officers of the Sunday-School Missionary Society of the Baptist Church for the next term are: S. W. Averett, president; W. P. Averett, secretary; N. L. Wade, Jr., treasurer. The election was held yesterday evening. ALFHA.

CLARKE COUNTY.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

DEERFIELD, Va., November 17, 1877.

The Circuit Court of this county, after a session of nearly two weeks, adjourned yesterday. The grand jury was in session the first day of the term, but found no "true bills." A few days after the grand jury was discharged a Mrs. Pone, of this county, shot John W. Grubb, inflicting a painful if not a serious wound. The "Pope's bull" against the comet may be a very harmless thing, but the Pope's bull against a man is not so regarded.

Colonel F. W. M. Holliday, the Governor's confidential agent, has been elected to the session. He looks as comfortable as though the entire State debt had already been discharged. Several voters in this county failed to express their approbation of Colonel Holliday's views on the payment of the State debt. They did not vote at all. In addition to their opposition to paying the State debt, most of the non-voters had failed to pay their capitation tax. It is, however, pretty well ascertained that Holliday is elected, notwithstanding he did not receive the votes of delinquents and forcible reductors. It is said that one of the men in the State voters of the Governor. He will have his revenge by appointing them brigadier-generals of militia.

The Moffet whiskey bell-punch has not yet been introduced in Berryville. The reason, doubtless, is that the bar-keepers do not get sufficient time between drinks to mix up the apparatus of this country with the amount of whiskey sales in Battletown district was several times larger than the amount expended for public-school purposes. The amount of revenue collected under the present system, in the same ratio, was sufficient to endow all the colleges in the United States, build the Southern Pacific railroad, and complete the Washington monument.

The growing wheat crop of Clarke never looked more promising at this season. An immense quantity of fertilizers was used by the farmers of this county in the seeding. Should there be a failure in the wheat crop it will prove very disastrous to the farming interests by reason of the increased expense of seeding.

Our village has very much improved in the past two years. The principal streets have been recently and substantially paved. With its churches, its workshops, and its high school, it bids fair to become one of the religious, commercial, and educational centres of our beautiful valley.

Interesting revival services have been held at the Methodist church in this place under the conduct of the Rev. Mr. Brooke. This gentleman is an earnest worker in the vineyard of the Master, and his labors upon this circuit have been rewarded with abundant success. A meeting has also just

Richmond Dispatch.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1877.

PETERSBURG.

ADDRESS BY DR. PETERBURG—REVIVAL AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE—PRESENTS TO THE CHURCH FAIR—A MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE—SAD AFFLICTION—PROTRACTED HUNTING TOUR.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 20, 1877.

Mr. Carter R. Bishop, Jr., has been appointed as the Commercial National Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father. He has also been elected a director of the bank.

Dr. William H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, visited Dinwiddie Courthouse yesterday (Tuesday) and addressed the citizens on the subject of education and the system of public schools. The Judge adjourned his court in order to allow Dr. Ruffner an opportunity to speak.

A revival of religion has been in progress for some time at the Harrison-Street Baptist (colored) church, and up to this date has resulted in the conversion of some twenty or thirty souls. Great interest is manifested on the subject among the colored people.

The Catholic fair is in full progress. A great many handsome and valuable articles have been presented for sale and raffle. One citizen has given a fine piano, another a set of furniture, another a splendid set of silver-service, another a magnificent forty-pound fruit-cake, and so on, and so on. Rev. Father Wislizenus, of Baltimore, has been invited to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The First Baptist church congregation are about to erect a chapel in the western part of the city as a missionary enterprise. They have already raised about $800 of the amount necessary to build it, and have secured the services of Rev. Dr. Filippo, late of Baltimore, to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The family of Mr. Virginia Archer, of Chesterfield county, have recently been peculiarly afflicted. The father, Mr. Archer, has lost three children. The first to die was a young boy just arrived at womanhood; the second a child; the third, who died, after a very brief illness, last night, was a son nearly sixteen years of age.

A party of citizens have fitted up a small school and supplied themselves with all necessary equipments, conveniences, and accommodations for the purpose of engaging in a protracted hunt down the James river. They will leave in a day or two, and will be gone for a considerable portion of the season. RICHMOND.

DANVILLE.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 19, 1877.

Old-fashioned sticklers took place Saturday evening at the Richmond hotel between Mr. W. T. Manning, of the News, and Captain R. G. Trezevant, of the Richmond and Danville railroad. Mr. Manning, feeling that he had cause for complaint against Captain Trezevant in consequence of some transaction between them, published a paragraph in the News of October 31st, which was evidently intended to be offensive to Captain Trezevant, and was so construed by him. After some correspondence between the parties, and several efforts to have a meeting, the difficulty by a regular fist-and-stick battle. Both parties were in good coolness and good luck, and were anxious to observe all the regulations for such engagements that no disposition to use weapons was manifested, and at one moment Mr. Manning had raised his foot to strike Trezevant, who, without saying so doing and begged pardon for showing a disposition to do so. "That's all right," said Trezevant, "go ahead." After Trezevant had been damaged rather more of the two parties separated, and Captain Trezevant got into a bad way. In a church corner, and duck the gentleman seemed well matched; and seeing this, and observing no disposition to resort to weapons of any kind, the passengers and bystanders by general consent permitted the matter to be brought to a satisfactory conclusion. On Sunday morning, even early remarked during the process.

"Punch, brother, punch—punch with care; Punch in the presence of the passagere."

Mr. Manning is disposed to take the matter as a pleasant occurrence, and consequently his friends, and amongst them your correspondent, are similarly disposed.

Mr. Raines, who has just returned, the oldest newspaper man in Danville, died Friday night last. The funeral services were conducted yesterday evening by Rev. Dr. Mrs. J. G. Shackelford has been extremely ill for several days.

Mr. J. G. Shackelford, son of Mr. P. W. Ferrell, and grandson of Mr. T. D. Neal, of Richmond, has been seriously ill for about a fortnight. Tommie had what was considered at first quite a slight bruise on the leg from a fall. But inflammation ensued, and the bone of the leg became diseased.

The officers of the Sunday-School Missionary Society of the Baptist Church for the next term are: S. W. Averett, president; W. P. Averett, secretary; N. L. Wade, Jr., treasurer. The election was held yesterday evening. ALFHA.

CLARKE COUNTY.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

DEERFIELD, Va., November 17, 1877.

The Circuit Court of this county, after a session of nearly two weeks, adjourned yesterday. The grand jury was in session the first day of the term, but found no "true bills." A few days after the grand jury was discharged a Mrs. Pone, of this county, shot John W. Grubb, inflicting a painful if not a serious wound. The "Pope's bull" against the comet may be a very harmless thing, but the Pope's bull against a man is not so regarded.

Colonel F. W. M. Holliday, the Governor's confidential agent, has been elected to the session. He looks as comfortable as though the entire State debt had already been discharged. Several voters in this county failed to express their approbation of Colonel Holliday's views on the payment of the State debt. They did not vote at all. In addition to their opposition to paying the State debt, most of the non-voters had failed to pay their capitation tax. It is, however, pretty well ascertained that Holliday is elected, notwithstanding he did not receive the votes of delinquents and forcible reductors. It is said that one of the men in the State voters of the Governor. He will have his revenge by appointing them brigadier-generals of militia.

The Moffet whiskey bell-punch has not yet been introduced in Berryville. The reason, doubtless, is that the bar-keepers do not get sufficient time between drinks to mix up the apparatus of this country with the amount of whiskey sales in Battletown district was several times larger than the amount expended for public-school purposes. The amount of revenue collected under the present system, in the same ratio, was sufficient to endow all the colleges in the United States, build the Southern Pacific railroad, and complete the Washington monument.

The growing wheat crop of Clarke never looked more promising at this season. An immense quantity of fertilizers was used by the farmers of this county in the seeding. Should there be a failure in the wheat crop it will prove very disastrous to the farming interests by reason of the increased expense of seeding.

Our village has very much improved in the past two years. The principal streets have been recently and substantially paved. With its churches, its workshops, and its high school, it bids fair to become one of the religious, commercial, and educational centres of our beautiful valley.

Interesting revival services have been held at the Methodist church in this place under the conduct of the Rev. Mr. Brooke. This gentleman is an earnest worker in the vineyard of the Master, and his labors upon this circuit have been rewarded with abundant success. A meeting has also just

Richmond Dispatch.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1877.

PETERSBURG.

ADDRESS BY DR. PETERBURG—REVIVAL AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE—PRESENTS TO THE CHURCH FAIR—A MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE—SAD AFFLICTION—PROTRACTED HUNTING TOUR.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 20, 1877.

Mr. Carter R. Bishop, Jr., has been appointed as the Commercial National Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father. He has also been elected a director of the bank.

Dr. William H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, visited Dinwiddie Courthouse yesterday (Tuesday) and addressed the citizens on the subject of education and the system of public schools. The Judge adjourned his court in order to allow Dr. Ruffner an opportunity to speak.

A revival of religion has been in progress for some time at the Harrison-Street Baptist (colored) church, and up to this date has resulted in the conversion of some twenty or thirty souls. Great interest is manifested on the subject among the colored people.

The Catholic fair is in full progress. A great many handsome and valuable articles have been presented for sale and raffle. One citizen has given a fine piano, another a set of furniture, another a splendid set of silver-service, another a magnificent forty-pound fruit-cake, and so on, and so on. Rev. Father Wislizenus, of Baltimore, has been invited to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The First Baptist church congregation are about to erect a chapel in the western part of the city as a missionary enterprise. They have already raised about $800 of the amount necessary to build it, and have secured the services of Rev. Dr. Filippo, late of Baltimore, to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The family of Mr. Virginia Archer, of Chesterfield county, have recently been peculiarly afflicted. The father, Mr. Archer, has lost three children. The first to die was a young boy just arrived at womanhood; the second a child; the third, who died, after a very brief illness, last night, was a son nearly sixteen years of age.

A party of citizens have fitted up a small school and supplied themselves with all necessary equipments, conveniences, and accommodations for the purpose of engaging in a protracted hunt down the James river. They will leave in a day or two, and will be gone for a considerable portion of the season. RICHMOND.

DANVILLE.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 19, 1877.

Old-fashioned sticklers took place Saturday evening at the Richmond hotel between Mr. W. T. Manning, of the News, and Captain R. G. Trezevant, of the Richmond and Danville railroad. Mr. Manning, feeling that he had cause for complaint against Captain Trezevant in consequence of some transaction between them, published a paragraph in the News of October 31st, which was evidently intended to be offensive to Captain Trezevant, and was so construed by him. After some correspondence between the parties, and several efforts to have a meeting, the difficulty by a regular fist-and-stick battle. Both parties were in good coolness and good luck, and were anxious to observe all the regulations for such engagements that no disposition to use weapons was manifested, and at one moment Mr. Manning had raised his foot to strike Trezevant, who, without saying so doing and begged pardon for showing a disposition to do so. "That's all right," said Trezevant, "go ahead." After Trezevant had been damaged rather more of the two parties separated, and Captain Trezevant got into a bad way. In a church corner, and duck the gentleman seemed well matched; and seeing this, and observing no disposition to resort to weapons of any kind, the passengers and bystanders by general consent permitted the matter to be brought to a satisfactory conclusion. On Sunday morning, even early remarked during the process.

"Punch, brother, punch—punch with care; Punch in the presence of the passagere."

Mr. Manning is disposed to take the matter as a pleasant occurrence, and consequently his friends, and amongst them your correspondent, are similarly disposed.

Mr. Raines, who has just returned, the oldest newspaper man in Danville, died Friday night last. The funeral services were conducted yesterday evening by Rev. Dr. Mrs. J. G. Shackelford has been extremely ill for several days.

Mr. J. G. Shackelford, son of Mr. P. W. Ferrell, and grandson of Mr. T. D. Neal, of Richmond, has been seriously ill for about a fortnight. Tommie had what was considered at first quite a slight bruise on the leg from a fall. But inflammation ensued, and the bone of the leg became diseased.

The officers of the Sunday-School Missionary Society of the Baptist Church for the next term are: S. W. Averett, president; W. P. Averett, secretary; N. L. Wade, Jr., treasurer. The election was held yesterday evening. ALFHA.

CLARKE COUNTY.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

DEERFIELD, Va., November 17, 1877.

The Circuit Court of this county, after a session of nearly two weeks, adjourned yesterday. The grand jury was in session the first day of the term, but found no "true bills." A few days after the grand jury was discharged a Mrs. Pone, of this county, shot John W. Grubb, inflicting a painful if not a serious wound. The "Pope's bull" against the comet may be a very harmless thing, but the Pope's bull against a man is not so regarded.

Colonel F. W. M. Holliday, the Governor's confidential agent, has been elected to the session. He looks as comfortable as though the entire State debt had already been discharged. Several voters in this county failed to express their approbation of Colonel Holliday's views on the payment of the State debt. They did not vote at all. In addition to their opposition to paying the State debt, most of the non-voters had failed to pay their capitation tax. It is, however, pretty well ascertained that Holliday is elected, notwithstanding he did not receive the votes of delinquents and forcible reductors. It is said that one of the men in the State voters of the Governor. He will have his revenge by appointing them brigadier-generals of militia.

The Moffet whiskey bell-punch has not yet been introduced in Berryville. The reason, doubtless, is that the bar-keepers do not get sufficient time between drinks to mix up the apparatus of this country with the amount of whiskey sales in Battletown district was several times larger than the amount expended for public-school purposes. The amount of revenue collected under the present system, in the same ratio, was sufficient to endow all the colleges in the United States, build the Southern Pacific railroad, and complete the Washington monument.

The growing wheat crop of Clarke never looked more promising at this season. An immense quantity of fertilizers was used by the farmers of this county in the seeding. Should there be a failure in the wheat crop it will prove very disastrous to the farming interests by reason of the increased expense of seeding.

Our village has very much improved in the past two years. The principal streets have been recently and substantially paved. With its churches, its workshops, and its high school, it bids fair to become one of the religious, commercial, and educational centres of our beautiful valley.

Interesting revival services have been held at the Methodist church in this place under the conduct of the Rev. Mr. Brooke. This gentleman is an earnest worker in the vineyard of the Master, and his labors upon this circuit have been rewarded with abundant success. A meeting has also just

Richmond Dispatch.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1877.

PETERSBURG.

ADDRESS BY DR. PETERBURG—REVIVAL AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE—PRESENTS TO THE CHURCH FAIR—A MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE—SAD AFFLICTION—PROTRACTED HUNTING TOUR.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 20, 1877.

Mr. Carter R. Bishop, Jr., has been appointed as the Commercial National Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father. He has also been elected a director of the bank.

Dr. William H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, visited Dinwiddie Courthouse yesterday (Tuesday) and addressed the citizens on the subject of education and the system of public schools. The Judge adjourned his court in order to allow Dr. Ruffner an opportunity to speak.

A revival of religion has been in progress for some time at the Harrison-Street Baptist (colored) church, and up to this date has resulted in the conversion of some twenty or thirty souls. Great interest is manifested on the subject among the colored people.

The Catholic fair is in full progress. A great many handsome and valuable articles have been presented for sale and raffle. One citizen has given a fine piano, another a set of furniture, another a splendid set of silver-service, another a magnificent forty-pound fruit-cake, and so on, and so on. Rev. Father Wislizenus, of Baltimore, has been invited to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The First Baptist church congregation are about to erect a chapel in the western part of the city as a missionary enterprise. They have already raised about $800 of the amount necessary to build it, and have secured the services of Rev. Dr. Filippo, late of Baltimore, to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The family of Mr. Virginia Archer, of Chesterfield county, have recently been peculiarly afflicted. The father, Mr. Archer, has lost three children. The first to die was a young boy just arrived at womanhood; the second a child; the third, who died, after a very brief illness, last night, was a son nearly sixteen years of age.

A party of citizens have fitted up a small school and supplied themselves with all necessary equipments, conveniences, and accommodations for the purpose of engaging in a protracted hunt down the James river. They will leave in a day or two, and will be gone for a considerable portion of the season. RICHMOND.

DANVILLE.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 19, 1877.

Old-fashioned sticklers took place Saturday evening at the Richmond hotel between Mr. W. T. Manning, of the News, and Captain R. G. Trezevant, of the Richmond and Danville railroad. Mr. Manning, feeling that he had cause for complaint against Captain Trezevant in consequence of some transaction between them, published a paragraph in the News of October 31st, which was evidently intended to be offensive to Captain Trezevant, and was so construed by him. After some correspondence between the parties, and several efforts to have a meeting, the difficulty by a regular fist-and-stick battle. Both parties were in good coolness and good luck, and were anxious to observe all the regulations for such engagements that no disposition to use weapons was manifested, and at one moment Mr. Manning had raised his foot to strike Trezevant, who, without saying so doing and begged pardon for showing a disposition to do so. "That's all right," said Trezevant, "go ahead." After Trezevant had been damaged rather more of the two parties separated, and Captain Trezevant got into a bad way. In a church corner, and duck the gentleman seemed well matched; and seeing this, and observing no disposition to resort to weapons of any kind, the passengers and bystanders by general consent permitted the matter to be brought to a satisfactory conclusion. On Sunday morning, even early remarked during the process.

"Punch, brother, punch—punch with care; Punch in the presence of the passagere."

Mr. Manning is disposed to take the matter as a pleasant occurrence, and consequently his friends, and amongst them your correspondent, are similarly disposed.

Mr. Raines, who has just returned, the oldest newspaper man in Danville, died Friday night last. The funeral services were conducted yesterday evening by Rev. Dr. Mrs. J. G. Shackelford has been extremely ill for several days.

Mr. J. G. Shackelford, son of Mr. P. W. Ferrell, and grandson of Mr. T. D. Neal, of Richmond, has been seriously ill for about a fortnight. Tommie had what was considered at first quite a slight bruise on the leg from a fall. But inflammation ensued, and the bone of the leg became diseased.

The officers of the Sunday-School Missionary Society of the Baptist Church for the next term are: S. W. Averett, president; W. P. Averett, secretary; N. L. Wade, Jr., treasurer. The election was held yesterday evening. ALFHA.

CLARKE COUNTY.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

DEERFIELD, Va., November 17, 1877.

The Circuit Court of this county, after a session of nearly two weeks, adjourned yesterday. The grand jury was in session the first day of the term, but found no "true bills." A few days after the grand jury was discharged a Mrs. Pone, of this county, shot John W. Grubb, inflicting a painful if not a serious wound. The "Pope's bull" against the comet may be a very harmless thing, but the Pope's bull against a man is not so regarded.

Colonel F. W. M. Holliday, the Governor's confidential agent, has been elected to the session. He looks as comfortable as though the entire State debt had already been discharged. Several voters in this county failed to express their approbation of Colonel Holliday's views on the payment of the State debt. They did not vote at all. In addition to their opposition to paying the State debt, most of the non-voters had failed to pay their capitation tax. It is, however, pretty well ascertained that Holliday is elected, notwithstanding he did not receive the votes of delinquents and forcible reductors. It is said that one of the men in the State voters of the Governor. He will have his revenge by appointing them brigadier-generals of militia.

The Moffet whiskey bell-punch has not yet been introduced in Berryville. The reason, doubtless, is that the bar-keepers do not get sufficient time between drinks to mix up the apparatus of this country with the amount of whiskey sales in Battletown district was several times larger than the amount expended for public-school purposes. The amount of revenue collected under the present system, in the same ratio, was sufficient to endow all the colleges in the United States, build the Southern Pacific railroad, and complete the Washington monument.

The growing wheat crop of Clarke never looked more promising at this season. An immense quantity of fertilizers was used by the farmers of this county in the seeding. Should there be a failure in the wheat crop it will prove very disastrous to the farming interests by reason of the increased expense of seeding.

Our village has very much improved in the past two years. The principal streets have been recently and substantially paved. With its churches, its workshops, and its high school, it bids fair to become one of the religious, commercial, and educational centres of our beautiful valley.

Interesting revival services have been held at the Methodist church in this place under the conduct of the Rev. Mr. Brooke. This gentleman is an earnest worker in the vineyard of the Master, and his labors upon this circuit have been rewarded with abundant success. A meeting has also just

Richmond Dispatch.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1877.

PETERSBURG.

ADDRESS BY DR. PETERBURG—REVIVAL AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE—PRESENTS TO THE CHURCH FAIR—A MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE—SAD AFFLICTION—PROTRACTED HUNTING TOUR.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 20, 1877.

Mr. Carter R. Bishop, Jr., has been appointed as the Commercial National Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father. He has also been elected a director of the bank.

Dr. William H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, visited Dinwiddie Courthouse yesterday (Tuesday) and addressed the citizens on the subject of education and the system of public schools. The Judge adjourned his court in order to allow Dr. Ruffner an opportunity to speak.

A revival of religion has been in progress for some time at the Harrison-Street Baptist (colored) church, and up to this date has resulted in the conversion of some twenty or thirty souls. Great interest is manifested on the subject among the colored people.

The Catholic fair is in full progress. A great many handsome and valuable articles have been presented for sale and raffle. One citizen has given a fine piano, another a set of furniture, another a splendid set of silver-service, another a magnificent forty-pound fruit-cake, and so on, and so on. Rev. Father Wislizenus, of Baltimore, has been invited to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The First Baptist church congregation are about to erect a chapel in the western part of the city as a missionary enterprise. They have already raised about $800 of the amount necessary to build it, and have secured the services of Rev. Dr. Filippo, late of Baltimore, to deliver a series of lectures next week to add to the interest in the fair.

The family of Mr. Virginia Archer, of Chesterfield county, have recently been peculiarly afflicted. The father, Mr. Archer, has lost three children. The first to die was a young boy just arrived at womanhood; the second a child; the third, who died, after a very brief illness, last night, was a son nearly sixteen years of age.

A party of citizens have fitted up a small school and supplied themselves with all necessary equipments, conveniences, and accommodations for the purpose of engaging in a protracted hunt down the James river. They will leave in a day or two, and will be gone for a considerable portion of the season. RICHMOND.

DANVILLE.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NOVEMBER 19, 1877.

Old-fashioned sticklers took place Saturday evening at the Richmond hotel between Mr. W. T. Manning, of the News, and Captain R. G. Trezevant, of the Richmond and Danville railroad. Mr. Manning, feeling that he had cause for complaint against Captain Trezevant in consequence of some transaction between them, published a paragraph in the News of October 31st, which was evidently intended to be offensive to Captain Trezevant, and was so construed by him. After some correspondence between the parties, and several efforts to have a meeting, the difficulty by a regular fist-and-stick battle. Both parties were in good coolness and good luck, and were anxious to observe all the regulations for such engagements that no disposition to use weapons was manifested, and at one moment Mr. Manning had raised his foot to strike Trezevant, who, without saying so doing and begged pardon for showing a disposition to do so. "That's all right," said Trezevant, "go ahead." After Trezevant had been damaged rather more of the two parties separated, and Captain Trezevant got into a bad way. In a church corner, and duck the gentleman seemed well matched; and seeing this, and observing no disposition to resort to weapons of any kind, the passengers and bystanders by general consent permitted the matter to be brought to a satisfactory conclusion. On Sunday morning, even early remarked during the process.

"Punch, brother, punch—punch with care; Punch in the presence of the passagere."

Mr. Manning is disposed to take the matter as a pleasant occurrence, and consequently his friends, and amongst them your correspondent, are similarly disposed.